Sponsorship Opportunities

to Support Hull Artists' 30th Open Studios

and reinforce your brand

Sponsoring Hull Artists, generally, and our Open Studios event specifically, is a win-win-win opportunity to help your business while supporting local art and culture in our community and providing enjoyment for thousands of regional visitors. In just the past three years, nearly 2,000 visitors have enjoyed visiting artists at their homes, learning about the artists and their art while spending a day in Hull, and exploring iconic locations, restaurants, and other businesses. Studies have shown that civic pride and the local economy benefit when art and culture are alive and thriving.

Help keep this 30-year tradition alive! Now, more than ever, we need community support to expand our programming for everyone's benefit. Doing so will help your business, and you'll be doing good! Sponsorships are also available to individuals.
